

1 $1,000 for a poorer person may be just as much of an
2 incentive for a man to show up in court.

3 We ought to seriously consider part (B) in 4 Section 5 and give it all the consideration it deserves
5 and hope that the court, regardless of a man's wealth, may 6 be able to set terms that make it possible to assure 7 the accused's appearance.

8 I would hope that the courts would look upon
9 this as a means of providing some equity between the rich
10 and poor, through the mandate that they have in terms of 11 dollars and cents, to require the accused to appear at the 12 time that they are scheduled for hearing.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to speak
14 in favor of the amendment?

15 Delegate Clagett.

16 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I am reasonably
17 satisfied that in the evolutionary processes of the law,
18 the rich and the poor are going to be adequately pro-
19 tected and where a distinction between one or the other
20 is necessary, the law will render that degree of protec-
21 tion.
